PETER RABIDEAU, PROVOST

Provost Rabideau provided the following information:

- The IHL Board meeting is scheduled for this upcoming week with committee meetings on Wednesday and the full Board meeting on Thursday. This will be Roy Klumb's last meeting as President. The Chief Academic Officers (CAOs) may have a further look at the exceptions to the 124-hour rule.
- The Office of the Provost has recently received two reports on external reviews of the Honors Program.
- Rabideau also received a report from Ralph Thayer, University of New Orleans, pertaining to the BSIS program.
MSU sponsored a bus trip to the Delta for new-to-the-University faculty. They visited a K-3 school in Grenada and the Viking Range assembly line.

Another round of proposals for Learning Communities for the Spring 2006 semester are being solicited.

Rabideau has recommended to the President that we begin to alternate Mace Bearers at Commencements between the winner of the Undergraduate Alumni Award and the Gresham Award winner.

President Goodman asked if Rabideau would send the Senate a copy of the BSIS report for our information and he responded that he would.

FRANCES COLEMAN, DEAN OF LIBRARIES

Dean Coleman provided the following information:

- Before beginning her remarks, Coleman distributed packets of information to all Senators.
- Coleman began by discussion one particular handout within the packet and sharing specific facts and data about the MSU Libraries with the Senators.
- To the Top: Over and Beyond is the Libraries’ theme for this year.
- Coleman wants the Library to be "The Place."
- An update of the Association of Research Libraries’ report was also shared.
- The Libraries’ budget has remained flat for the past several years.
- The MSU Libraries is a member of the Association of Southeastern Research Libraries.
- The Magnolia Project is a state-wide database consortia and a line-item through the Mississippi legislative budget.
- Senator Bridges asked if the index to University photographs and University Archives online. Coleman responded that some of this information is online and progress is continuing on this monumental project.
- Senator Montgomery thanked Dean Coleman for allowing the Senate to use the Grisham Room for their meetings over the past two years.
- President Goodman urged Senators to assist the Library in any way possible as they strive to obtain ARL (Association of Research Libraries) membership.
